FRENCH HURL GERMAN WARRIORS BACK SIX MILES IN BLOODY STRIFE

ITALY BEGINS OFFENSIVE WITH ALLIES IN BALKANS

CENTRAL POWERS AGREE ON APPORTIONMENT OF MEN TO CONDUCT NEW CAMPAIGN

(By Associated Press.)

London, Sept. 14.—The French have passed in their advance north of Peronne, where they have gone six miles into the German lines, since July, who now are withstanding the German attacks. The latest reports from both sides, show the opposing forces are in contact along virtually the entire front.

In the Romanian campaign there is apparently a general engagement today. Dispositions through from Italy are an offensive campaign in the Balkans is being mapped out.

At a conference of the Central Powers at German headquarters the German contribution was fixed at 150,000 men and the Austrians at half of that number, to continue the Balkan campaign.

Bulgarians and Serbians Battle Fiercely

Paris, Sept. 14.—The Serbians and Bulgarians are engaged in violent fighting on the Macedonian front. It was announced today. The Serbians have captured Bulgarian trenches near Velrenik. An engagement south of Lake Ostrova today went in favor of the Allies.

Germans Fail in Violent Fight

Paris, Sept. 14.—The Germans made many vigorous efforts last night to drive the French out of the territory recently captured by them on the Somme in Verdun, but were repulsed. Several attacks were made north and south of the Somme and east of the Meuse in the Verdun district.

French Drive a Salient on Somme

London, Sept. 14.—The French north of Peronne are holding tenaciously to the salient they have driven into the German line east of the Bethune-Peronne road near Bouchevaines. They hold intact, the Bouchevaines and other points along the line captured in the offensive, started Thursday. They capture of a powerful organized German trench system south of the La-Priez farm near the road running west from Rancourt to Comblis has further jeopardized Comblis.

Points Won and Lost

Finding that the French had cut their line of communication from Peronne northward, the Germans broke violent attacks against L'Abbe wood and Hill 76, south of Bouchevaines, and retook both places. The French, however, returned vigorously to the attack, and after hard fighting command to hand finally drove out the Germans and kept the ground they had won.

In the two days fighting more than 2,300 German prisoners were taken and a large number of guns and machine guns were captured.

On the British Somme front the situation remains unchanged.

Artillery Busy

South of the Somme heavy artillery duels between the French and Germans continue near Verdun and Chaulnes. Renewal of a German attack near Fleury in the Verdun sector, is reported by Paris.

Heavy fighting continues all along the Macedonian front but no important changes are reported. The Italians have joined in the fray west of the Cardar river. Near Lake Butkovo Rome declares they have driven Bulgarian detachments beyond the Demis-Hessar Dolan road. The Bulgarians say, however, that the Italians were dispersed here with a loss of thirty men captured.

The British across the Struma river south of Lake Takonos, have made no
